DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

MINIMUM WAGE BOARD.

ORDER GOVERNING MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY.

WHERE used in the following Order the term "manufacturing industry" includes the work of females engaged in the making, preparing, altering, repairing, ornamenting, printing, finishing, packing, assembling the parts of, and adapting for use or sale any article or commodity, but excepting fish, fruit, and vegetable drying, canning, preserving, or packing.

And where used in this Order the term "employer" shall include every person, firm, or corporation, agent, manager, representative, contractor, sub-contractor, or principal, or other persons having control or direction of any employee in the manufacturing industry, or responsible, directly or indirectly, for the wages of another.

(a.) Women Eighteen Years of Age or over.

Upon receipt of the recommendations from a Conference held on the eighteenth day of June, 1919, pursuant to the provisions of the "Minimum Wage Act," touching the minimum wage and maximum hours proper in the manufacturing industry, as follows:—

"Be it Resolved, That this Conference on the manufacturing industry in the Province of British Columbia, meeting in the Court-house, Vancouver, B.C., on the eighteenth day of June, 1919, hereby makes the following recommendations to the Minimum Wage Board of the Province of British Columbia:—

"1. That it shall be unlawful for any employer in the Province of British Columbia to employ or pay any female employee of eighteen (18) years of age or over engaged in the manufacturing industry less than fourteen dollars ($14) a week: Provided, however, that, even though the amount earned at piece-work rates by any female employee be less than the aforementioned minimum wage, nevertheless the employee shall be paid not less than fourteen dollars ($14) per week.

"2. That forty-four (44) hours shall constitute a week: Provided, however, that in emergency cases fifty-two (52) hours per week be allowed, and time and one-half be paid the employee for all time worked over the forty-four (44) hours per week."

And the Board, having reviewed the said recommendations, has, under the powers conferred upon them by section 8 of the Act, approved of the first, but has disapproved of the second of the said recommendations as being contrary to the provisions of the "Factories Act":

It is hereby ordered as obligatory on all employers in the manufacturing industry, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, as to employees eighteen years of age or over that age, as follows:—

1. The minimum wage for every such employee in the manufacturing industry (except as to women and apprentices to whom a special licence is issued by the Board under section 10 (1) of the said Act) shall be the sum of fourteen dollars ($14) per week.

2. In any branch of the manufacturing industry in which apprentices are not usually employed it shall be lawful for an employer to employ an employee during the first three (3) months only of her employment in such branch of the said industry at a minimum wage of twelve dollars ($12) per week. The said period of three (3) months shall be called the "probationary period."

(b.) Girls under Eighteen Years of Age.

Take notice that by virtue of the authority vested in the Minimum Wage Board by the "Minimum Wage Act," the said Board, having inquired into the wages and conditions of labour of girls under eighteen years of age employed in the manufacturing industry, and having determined wages and conditions of labour suitable for such girls, hereby orders that:—

1. It shall be unlawful for any employer to employ or pay any girl under eighteen years of age in the manufacturing industry at less than the following wage, namely:—

$10 a week during the first six months of employment in such industry.

$11 a week during the second six months of employment in such industry.

$12 a week during the third six months of employment in such industry.

$13 a week during the fourth six months of employment in such industry.

(c.) Apprentices.

To Employers in the Manufacturing Industry:

By section 10 of the "Minimum Wage Act" the Board is empowered to issue to any female apprentice a special licence authorizing her employment in the above occupation (being an occupation for which a minimum wage has been fixed) at a minimum wage to be fixed in the licence, less than the minimum wage fixed for the said occupation; the licence to remain in force for such period as is fixed by the Board. The number of employees holding special licences under said section employed in any plant or establishment shall not exceed in number one-seventh of the whole number of female employees in that plant or establishment: Provided, however, that in any plant or establishment where less than seven female employees are employed, one apprentice holding a special licence may be employed.

The Board desires that you take notice that:—

1. Licences will only be issued in such branches of the manufacturing industry in which apprentices are usually employed and in cases where the Board is satisfied that the application for such licence is made in good faith.

2. In fixing the minimum wage for each such apprentice and the length of time such licence is to remain in force, the Board will be guided by the circumstances of each case as disclosed in the application for the licence.

3. Applications for such licences must be in writing. Forms of application will be supplied by the Board, free of charge, upon the request of any intending applicant. Delay and unnecessary correspondence in connection with the issuance of such licences will be obviated by the use of such Forms.

This Order shall come into force and be effective on and from the first day of September, 1919.
